

City Pulse

Top 3 Picks to Watch March Madness Finals 2018

Everyone knows that March Madness extends into April. The final game is on Monday, April 2nd — the line-up is getting heated. Here are our top 3 places to watch the ultimate and penultimate games in New York City. Get into the team spirit and put on your team's colors, set the date and gather up your friends for a great night out to watch the outcome.

#3: Inside The Sanctuary Hotel is Tender Restaurant — it's directly off of Times Square. For watching the hoops, they are offering a special menu and multiple TVs so the games can be seen while you dine. The restaurant has several 55" HD TVs and two 82" projector screens. For bites, enjoy avocado fries and their mac & cheese. They also offer a special that they call "Game Day Wings." The beer and cocktail menu is extensive. It's a convenient space for everyone to gather in midtown.

Note: The interior is beautiful without the noise of local sports pubs.

Make a reservation:

Tender Restaurant
132 West 47th Street
New York, NY
10036

212-514-6000

<http://tendernyc.com>