Hotel Getaways: New York City

Autumn is falling upon us, and it's a good time for leisure travelers to get their lodging on, now that school is back in session for virtually all grades, and the high demand summer vacation season is now in the rearview. This week I've got some deals in the two of New York City's five boroughs: escape to Brooklyn or stick around and (as the old song goes) turn Manhattan into an isle of joy.

Find Sanctuary in Manhattan and enjoy an autumn tasting menu

For those looking to spend time in the midst of the Big Apple, Sanctuary Hotel in Manhattan's Theatre District is offering the Fall Into The Big Apple Getaway Package. In addition to accommodations, the package includes a tasting menu with a bottle of red wine at the hotel's Asian-fusion Tender Steak & Sushi. A must-see item to check out is The Haven Rooftop, where it's hard not to feel like a master of the universe.

The package is also available by calling the hotel directly and referencing by name. Rates start at $449 per night and can be booked through Oct. 30.
